Tortured Self to Prove Her Faith In "Spirit Love"

Year Old Sunday School Teacher Tells Unhappy Story of Burning Flesh to the Bone to Prove Faith for Policeman.

Miss Bluff, Ill., Oct. 31 (AP).—Self-torture by fire to prove her faith in "spirit love" was advanced today by the strange case of Miss Knack, 29 year old Sunday school teacher and book agent.

It was a wild, uncanny episode, full of holes and wide open to skeptical-minded police skepticism. It came from the lips of Miss Knack herself, lying near death from burns mysteriously inflicted in the basement of the Lake Bluff police station some time Monday night.

Physicians were unconvinced.

"To believe her story," said Dr. A. Reisinger, attending her, "you would have to believe these facts: That she first placed one foot on the other, in the furnace and kept them there for some little time; that she thrust head and arms and held them there under what certainly must have been terrific pain. The fire box is only 12 1/2 by 3 1/2 feet.

"It does not seem possible that a person, even in a trance, could do that. Muscular reaction alone would cause her to jump back from the flames."

The name of Charles W. Hitchcock, 45 years old, married and the father of four children, was brought into the case by Miss Knack who during the night frequently cried out: "Hitch, oh, Hitch. Why don't you come to me?"

"Who did this?" said the state's attorney, bending over the girl's body.

"I did it myself, for faith, for spirit," was the response. At intervals the officers obtained her story. She had known Hitchcock for years, she said, having studied diction and salesmanship in classes he conducted here.

Not a Material Love Affair.

"A few months ago I got to know him spiritually," she was quoted as saying. "This was no material love affair. Advanced psychology made me understand him. For weeks I have been hearing his voice saying, 'Give faith; have faith.'"

He had an appointment with him Monday night. He did not keep it. Hitchcock, who besides being a teacher, is night policeman of Lake Bluff, has been confined to his home with a broken leg for a week. When he did not appear, I again heard his voice, urging me to have faith.

To prove my faith, I thought of the fire. I removed my clothes and burned them. I burned myself.

"I survived," I proved my faith and I'll live. Be sure of this; I knew would survive."

Hitchcock, his leg in a cast, was unable to clear up the girl's story.

Didn't Know of Her "Crash."

"Poor girl, if she had a crush on me, I certainly didn't know it," he said.

Hitchcock said Miss Knack came to him four years ago to study salesmanship and elocution. Since finishing the course she has occasionally communicated with him. Hitchcock said, seeking his advice on problems confronting her.

Hitchcock conducts his classes in the morning hours, working as night policeman from 7 p. m. to 1 a. m. One theory under investigation was that Miss Knack, not knowing of his injury, had gone to the police station Monday evening to await his arrival after his official rounds. The station is closed at night, but Miss Knack was presumed to have had a key, as did many other persons.

It is possible, police said, that she may have gone to the furnace room for warmth, and that she may have been attacked by some vagrant who himself had gotten into the basement to keep warm during the chilly night. Physicians said the burns probably were inflicted shortly before the young woman was discovered by the janitor about 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning.

Foreman Burned to Bone.

The janitor found Miss Knack bleeding up, her face and body blackened by the fire. Her forearms were burned to the bone, her hair was burned from her head, and the heat had seared the flesh of her forehead through to the skull. She was leaning against a pipe by the furnace when the janitor saw her, and the sight sent him running up stairs, screaming for help.

Hitchcock was appointed night policeman four years ago when his health made it necessary to leave the stage, where he appeared in Mendeville, and the movies, where he acted character roles.

Miss Knack, whose home is with her widowed mother in Deerfield, Ill., has studied at the University of Illinois and Chicago and at the Normal School in Ypsilanti, Mich. It was while teaching at Keokuk, Ill., that she first began study of elocution with Hitchcock.

Coming Returns Home.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 31 (AP).—Governor Edward C. Morgan was back at his home after several months' illness in his Northeast Harbor, Me., winter home. It is expected that the lieutenant governor will remain at home under treatment of Dr. Morgan's illness as state secretary.

Adopt Type of City Pavement For Next Year

Board of Public Works Announces That Standard Paving for Residential Streets Will Be Bituminous Macadam—Other Matters at Monthly Meeting.

Bituminous macadam will be the standard type of pavement to be laid in residential streets in Kingston during 1929, according to an announcement made Tuesday evening at the regular monthly meeting of the board of public works. This is the type of pavement laid in Wilbur avenue some seven years ago and also in Derrenbacher street this year.

The announcement of the standard adopted by the board was made by Mayor E. J. Dempsey, president of the board, at the close of the meeting. He called attention to the fact that bituminous macadam had been laid on the grade on Lucas avenue some twelve years ago and was as good a pavement today as when it was laid while the Wilbur laid on part of the street was badly cracked.

Hahn to Move House.

Albert Hahn appeared before the board seeking permission to move a house from 10 East St. James street to his lot on Wrentham street. He had taken the matter up with City Engineer G. Wallace Codwise, who reported that he favored the granting of the petition provided Hahn put up a bond for $10,000 to protect the city for any damage to streets, sewers, water pipes, etc., caused by moving the house through the streets and that the work be completed within 48 hours.

After some discussion the amount of the bond to be furnished was placed at $5,000 and the forty-eight hour limit applied only while moving the house through Albany avenue.

Auto for Engineer.

City Engineer G. Wallace Codwise called attention of the board to the fact that much time was lost by his office force in making their street surveys and asked that the board furnish the city engineer's office with a small car with a suburban body. The matter was referred to the finance committee.

Carrying out the provisions of the action taken last month by the board, the corporation counsel submitted an ordinance amending an ordinance passed May 29, 1928, relative to the parking of vehicles, which repealed the former provision of "No left turn" into Wall street from North Front street, and in its place substituted that no "left turn" be allowed at that point. The ordinance was adopted.

For Sanitary Sewer.

The board also adopted an ordinance calling for the construction of a sanitary sewer in Charlotte street and Jefferson avenue, and another for the establishing of grade in Lounsberry place.

Would Name New Street.

Theodore E. Smith appeared before the board and said he would like to suggest a name for the new street in the rear of Johnston avenue, just off Lounsberry place, where several new houses had been erected. He suggested the name of Irving place. It was brought out that the board had no jurisdiction in naming streets but that was a matter for the common council and Mr. Smith was advised to appear at the next council session.

Street Signs.

Al King asked permission to erect electric street signs in front of Elite Restaurant at 610 1/2 Broadway and M. Kerler, 33 East Strand; Southard-Beicher, Inc., asked permission to replace present board sign with electric sign in front of 11 Railroad avenue, and S. G. Kravem asked permission to place electric sign in front of his place at 35 East Strand.

All of the petitions were referred to Superintendent Frank Mills with power.

Bills and claims were read and the board then adjourned.

Robert Lansing, State Secretary During War, Dies

Succeeded Bryan in Cabinet After Bryan's Break With President and in Turn Resigned When Rebuked for Calling Cabinet Meeting During Wilson's Illness.

Washington, Oct. 31 (AP).—The last of three seures that marked large in the enunciation of American foreign policy during the critical days of the World War and the period that immediately preceded the great conflict has gone.

Having claimed Woodrow Wilson and William Jennings Bryan, death late yesterday overtook Robert Lansing, who held the portfolio during the entire time that America was one of the belligerent nations and resigned on receiving a rebuke from President Wilson.

For several years Mr. Lansing had suffered from a heart ailment described by his physician as myocarditis. Four weeks ago he returned to Washington from his summer home at Henderson Harbor, New York, and a short while later his illness became acute.

For the last three days he was semi-conscious. The former cabinet officer had so withdrawn from public affairs that only a few persons knew of his critical condition and word of his death came as a surprise and a shock to official Washington generally.

Robert Lansing was a life-long student of government, diplomacy and international affairs. Bryan's celebrated break with Wilson, arising from a disagreement as to what the official American attitude toward the tragedy of the Lusitania should be, found Mr. Lansing holding the post of counselor of the state department. With Bryan's resignation he was promoted to the cabinet and was faced at once with the intricacies of what already was a tense international situation.

Broke Relations With Wilson.

As with his predecessor, Mr. Lansing's tenure of office ended in disagreement with President Wilson. In Lansing's case the break was brought on, ostensibly, by his action in calling a meeting of the cabinet while the president was ill. A sharp exchange with his chief followed, and when the documents were made public they included Mr. Lansing's resignation.

However there are some who assert that the Lansing-Wilson disagreement antedated the cabinet meeting incident and that on several occasions the President and his secretary of state were hardly in accord. In this connection, Lansing's statement in 1917 that the United States was being drawn daily nearer and nearer to the World War is mentioned and it is asserted that there were differences as to the Paris peace treaty, the League of Nations covenant and Mexican policy.

At any rate with the cabinet meeting came the breaking point. Rumors of an alarming nature as to Mr. Wilson's condition were being given wide circulation at the time and there was gossip of congressional action to turn the executive duties over to Vice President Marshall, all of which was quickly discredited.

Wilson Questioned Authority.

In such an atmosphere the cabinet meeting was called. President Wilson learned of it through his secretary and was deeply perturbed. Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, Wilson's personal physician, was sent to the meeting to determine its purpose. Grayson was plying with questions and in response declared that Mr. Wilson was in complete possession of his faculties and was anxious to learn by what authority the meeting had been called.

As the tale told at the time ran, Grayson was informed by Lansing's associates before he himself could reply that the cabinet members only wished to inquire as to the President's health and send him a message of loyalty.

That particular meeting adjourned at once, but others followed, which some believe the President did not know of. However, on February 12, 1920, the communications that had passed between the secretary of state and his chief, including Lansing's resignation, were given to the public.

Mr. Lansing was 64 years old. He was born at Watertown, N. Y., and was a graduate of Amherst College and a lawyer by profession. Before becoming actively connected with the state department in 1914, he had represented the United States in connection with various arbitration treaties for more than 29 years.

Funeral Thursday.

Washington, Oct. 31 (AP).—Funeral services for Robert Lansing, former secretary of state, will be held at his home here at 4 o'clock tomorrow. Burial will be in Brookside cemetery, Watertown, N. Y., the following day. A special funeral car will be attached to a regular train for the trip to Watertown, which will begin immediately after the funeral service.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT TO SPEAK IN CITY ON MONDAY

Franklin D. Roosevelt, the Democratic candidate for governor, will speak at a Democratic rally to be held here Monday afternoon, Mr. Roosevelt is expected to arrive in Kingston about 5 o'clock that afternoon. The place for holding the rally has not been selected as yet.

Pratt Deserves To Be Re-elected Campaign While Journeying Home

HARCOURT J. PRATT

Promptness and efficiency have characterized the service of Congressman Harcourt J. Pratt during his four years in Washington, according to the following tribute from the Monticello Republican of Sullivan county:

"Hon. Harcourt J. Pratt of Highland, Ulster county, who has represented the Twenty-seventh district in Congress for the past four years, as everyone knows, is up again this year for reelection. The district is composed of Ulster, Greene, Schoharie, Columbia, and Sullivan counties, and he was nominated in the primary without a single dissenting vote in any of the five counties, which of itself signifies the high esteem in which he is held by his constituents.

"Congressman Pratt is essentially a business man and his record in Congress has been that of sound, level-headed business character. He has been regular in attendance and faithful in the discharge of his duties. He has voted right on all propositions brought before the House. He has been prompt and efficient in his attendance at all matters presented to him for action by his constituents and in every way has pleased and given the best of satisfaction.

"Congressman Pratt has not only done everything that could be reasonably expected of any representative in Congress but has frequently gone out of his way to do favors and help in matters that were not strictly in the line of his Congressional duties.

"In the extension of these many courtesies both in and out of Congress, his prompt business methods in the handling of all official business methods and meeting the requests of his constituents, he has not only demonstrated that he is eminently qualified for the position of Congressman, but has made many friends and constant admirers throughout the district, regardless of party affiliations or other considerations, as he knows no politics in dealing with his people.

"As a consequence, Congressman Pratt is going to get a great many votes that ordinarily might go to his opponent. Although the district is heavily Republican and his election is assured, it will be a matter of pride and satisfaction to him to carry it by an increased majority. This he is sure to do. His excellent record in the House of Representatives warrants it and the personal following acquired through his efficient methods and the many courtesies extended will add greatly to his normal vote.

"Congressman Pratt will be elected by a most impressive majority on November 6, and he certainly deserves to be."

Callers Wish Him Luck.

The Republican candidate had a host of callers during the forenoon at his headquarters. Most of them coming to say goodbye and to wish Hoover luck in his great adventure. An early caller was William J. Donovan, assistant attorney general, and he was followed by Ogden Mills, under-secretary of the treasury, and Theodore Roosevelt, Jr.

Other visitors included several personal friends of the nominee as well as those who have been associated with him in the work of the campaign. As he went about greeting first one friend and then another, Hoover appeared in fine spirits and seemed supremely confident of the outcome of the election.

The nominee planned to hold his final Washington press conference of the campaign during the late afternoon and to say goodbye to those of the Washington correspondents who will not accompany him on his long trek to Palo Alto.

PERFUME MANUFACTURER DIES AT RESORT NEAR NICE

Nice, France, Oct. 31 (AP).—Richard Rudolph, former New York drugist, who became a millionaire through the manufacture of perfume, is dead at Chateau Jean at Juanes Pins, a resort near Nice.

Mr. Rudolph owned a villa there and spent much of his time in recent years at it. He died last night of heart failure. He was 55 years old. His widow is the mother by a former marriage of Winifred Stansbury Rudolph, known on the stage as Natscha Ramonova, who was the second wife of the late Rudolph Valentino.

Ambulance Calls Tuesday

Tuesday the city ambulance removed Sanford Beckwith from the Industrial Home to the City of Kingston Hospital, and Grace Palea from Hillside avenue to the Beneditine Hospital.

Hoover to Direct Campaign While Journeying Home

Will Be Kept Advised of Events as They Take Place and Direct Activities—Private Car to Be Equipped With Loud Speakers and Microphone for Rear-Platform Talks.

Washington, Oct. 31 (AP).—Another oddity will take its place in this campaign of oddities late this week when the Republican high command directs the party's vast field forces from general headquarters on a swiftly moving special train carrying Herbert Hoover to his California home.

Since the day of his nomination, the Republican candidate has had personal charge of the conduct of his fight for the presidency, and so it will be until the last shot has been fired and the army of voters begins to march upon the polling places.

When Hoover turns westward again tomorrow he will be surrounded by most of the advisers who have been almost constantly at his side in his greatest battle of his career. There will be his personal assistant, George Akerson, Dr. Hubert Work, chairman, and Ralph Williams of Oregon, vice chairman of the Republican national committee, George Barr Baker of New York, Harry Robinson of Los Angeles, and T. C. Gregory of San Francisco.

As his opponent is concluding a spectacular appeal for the votes of normally Republican strongholds in the east, Hoover will be kept advised of events as they take place and after conferring with his advisers will send forth orders for moves intended to counteract the Democratic activities.

Hoover Firing Solid Shot.

The Republican standard-bearer also will be firing some solid shot himself. He will deliver a major speech at St. Louis Friday night, and also will speak at noon that day and on Thursday and Saturday nights. His range will cover a field from Maryland to Colorado while his Democratic opponent is active in and around New York city.

Aside from these principal speeches, Hoover will make nearly a dozen brief rear-platform talks and for the first time during this campaign his private car will be equipped with loud speakers and microphone. Heretofore at stops where speeches were to be made the local committees furnished their own loud speakers and microphones.

Will Use Private Cars.

As was the case during the last transcontinental trip, Hoover will use two different private cars. He will ride to St. Louis in one furnished by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, but while he is speaking in the Missouri city this car will be detached and replaced by the private car "Sunset" of the Southern Pacific Railroad.

The loud speaker will be transferred from one car to the other along with the baggage of the candidate and his immediate personal party.

Besides his political advisers, Hoover will be accompanied by Mrs. Hoover and their son, Allan, as well as Lewis Straub, of New York, secretary of the presidential campaign, during the World War period.

There will be a corps of more than thirty newspaper correspondents and news photographers, the largest group that has accompanied the candidate on his journeys of which this is the third since he was chosen to carry the standard for the Republican party.

Callers Wish Him Luck.

The Republican candidate had a host of callers during the forenoon at his headquarters. Most of them coming to say goodbye and to wish Hoover luck in his great adventure. An early caller was William J. Donovan, assistant attorney general, and he was followed by Ogden Mills, under-secretary of the treasury, and Theodore Roosevelt, Jr.

Fahrenhorst to Sell His Business

Wall Street Grocer Will Retire from Business—Rumored That Mail Order House Will Occupy the Property.

O. F. Fahrenhorst, successor to E. S. Craft & Son in the grocery business located at 339 Wall street, will dispose of his stock of merchandise, and retire from the business, Mr. Fahrenhorst is carrying an advertisement in the current issue of The Freeman.

The grocery store was established many years ago and operated by W. Scott Gillespie who several years ago disposed of the store property and business to E. S. Craft & Son who merged their business with the Gillespie business and continued to conduct the business at the location of the business of Mr. Gillespie. Later they disposed of their business to two of the town on the shores of Lake York who in turn sold out the business to Mr. Fahrenhorst. The property, a three-story brick building, was not included in the sale of the business. Craft to Shapiro & Cohen and some time prior the property was sold to Frank Forman of this city who at present owns it. Mr. Forman leased the property for a term of years to the occupants and there is still a term of years to run on the lease.

Located on Wall street in the retail district the store is one of the most desirable in the city. What disposition will be made of the building when vacated by Mr. Fahrenhorst is not known as Mr. Forman is in New York city at present. There have been rumors about town for some time that one of the mail order houses was considering opening a retail store in this city and the Forman building is now being mentioned in that connection. Whether there is any foundation to this rumor could not be learned in the absence of Mr. Forman.

Measuring the past few days various measurements have been made of the building both inside and outside and it is probably with the idea of improvements by a new tenant or purchaser.

Kyserike Man Is Fined and Jailed

Nathan Crawford Pleads Guilty to Driving Car While Intoxicated and Is Fined $100 and Sentenced to 15 Days in Jail.

Nathan Crawford, 40, of Kyserike, who was arrested Monday afternoon charged with operating an automobile while intoxicated, appeared in police court this morning and informed Judge Shufeldt that he desired to have his case disposed of at this time and entered a plea of guilty. He had been arraigned Tuesday at which time he asked for an adjournment for five days to obtain a lawyer. Since then he said he had changed his mind.

Judge Shufeldt imposed a fine of $100 and sentenced Crawford to fifteen days in the county jail on his plea of guilty. Crawford while intoxicated Monday afternoon drove his car into the Ford coupe of Harold Johnson of the parcel post division of the post office, wrecking the Ford. The crash occurred on Broadway near Dederick street. Crawford informed Judge Shufeldt he had a wife and a child.

Frank Smith of 22 Meadow street, arrested for public intoxication Tuesday, was fined $5.

Michael Seak, arrested for train riding, was fined $5 and payment of fine suspended provided he left town. He said he had $150 with him and a job waiting in Newburgh.

Henry "Blue" Thomas, a negro, arrested Monday on a warrant sworn out by Charles Dasher, charging "Blue" with robbery in the second degree in taking Dasher's revolver from his pocket, was arraigned and the hearing adjourned to November 5. "Blue" lived up to his nickname when he appeared in court wearing a dark blue suit, a blue tie and a blue scarf. He also wore blue socks.

SADIE MILLER FOUND GUILTY OF ASSAULTING DOLLY CARTER

After a lengthy trial in police court Tuesday evening before Judge Shufeldt and a jury, Sadie Miller, a negro residing at 405 Foxhall avenue, was found guilty of assault in the third degree and fined $25. She was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Dolly Carter, another negro. Attorney Lloyd R. LeFevre appeared for Sadie and Attorney Chris Flannigan for Dolly at the trial Tuesday night.

Hearty Welcome For Stowaway

Berlin, Oct. 31 (AP).—Clarence Terhune, American boy stowaway on the air liner Graf Zeppelin, will receive a hearty welcome to Germany and can have a job if he wants one.

He will not be subjected to molestation by the police whether he receives a temporary passport or not. The Wurttemberg minister of Interior advised the Friedrichshafen airport officials today:

"Treat the blind passenger in the most loyal manner possible."

The Leonard Tietz Company, which owns a chain of department stores throughout Germany, sent this radio message to Terhune aboard the dirigible:

"Offer you immediate job. Wireless your terms and time of arrival."

The world famed Hagenbach mercantile at Hamburg also sent Terhune a wireless message offering him a position. The message stated that in view of his having shown exceptional courage he would be given employment as trainer of wild animals.

Rebekah's Humorous Sale.

A rummage sale will be held by the Past Noble Grande Club of Rebekah Lodge, at 164 Hamsburg avenue, on November 1, 2 and 3.

Steering About Southeast.

At 12:15 a. m. (7:15 p. m. eastern standard time last night) the Graf Zeppelin was about 550 miles west of Lizard Head, Cornwall, the southern tip of England. A radio report to the Associated Press, relayed by the British steamship Agency from the Dutch steamship Agnoria, reported the dirigible was steering about southeast (true). She had sailed about the West-drift at 49:42 north latitude, 22:02 west longitude and there was a north wind of moderate force.

Earlier in the day the dirigible had flown to the north of Lizard Head, Cornwall, making a steady progress along the 52nd parallel of latitude.

Life looks rosy for him

Health worth more than fortune

THE baby to be envied is the one who is born with an inheritance of perfect health to begin with. And who's baby counts to have a mother who knows how to build up this fortune.

"Perhaps I'm old-fashioned," she said to the doctor who pronounced her child physically perfect at a baby show. "But this health certificate means more to me than all the stars and stripes in the world. It means I grow up strong and well, I'm willing to leave it to him to make a career and fortune for himself."

"Already I'm teaching him the value of regular habits. Regular sleep, regular meals, regular bathing. He's never once been off schedule, not even when he was cutting teeth or traveling to the country. I make sure of that by giving him Nujol regularly."

Nujol works so easily and naturally that it won't upset a baby under any conditions. It keeps everything functioning properly. It not only prevents any excess of body poisons (we all have them) from forming but aids in their removal. It is safe and sure. Nujol was perfected by the Nujol Laboratories, 26 Broadway, New York.

Heir to millions

Just try Nujol for your baby. Give it to him regularly for the next three months. See if it doesn't make things much easier for both of you. Certainly it could do no harm - for Nujol contains no drugs or medicine. Your druggist carries it. Be sure you get the genuine. Sold only in sealed packages.

Mail Service Christmas Day

Postmaster Walter P. Crane receives Wood from Postmaster General Harry S. New as to Mail Service That Day in Kingston.

Postmaster Walter P. Crane of Kingston and other postmasters throughout the United States have received word from Postmaster General Harry S. New as to mail service that will prevail on Christmas Day. Although Christmas is still some time away it will prove of interest to every resident of Ulster county as to what mail service will be on that holiday.

The word sent to the postmasters follows: "As Christmas Day this year falls on Tuesday, it is my purpose to relieve of work on Christmas Day as many post office employees as may be possible, and thus permit them to have the full benefit of the greatest holiday and partake of their Christmas dinners in their homes with their families."

"There will be no city delivery, village delivery, or rural delivery on Christmas Day. Special delivery mail will be handled and delivered as usual, such employees as may be necessary shall be on duty for that purpose. At 12 o'clock midnight, December 25, such activities as ordinarily commence at that hour will again be put in operation, and on the following morning all activities will be resumed with full force and energy."

The postmaster general states that plan was carried out in 1925 and that there is no reason why it cannot be carried out this year. He also advocates that in order that the delivery of Christmas mail be not retarded that a mail early campaign should be inaugurated.

MONROVIA CENTER.

Monrovia Center, Oct. 31.—Mr. and Mrs. V. Vandermark of Pleasantville visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lounsbury recently. When they returned home Mrs. Lounsbury returned with them to spend a vacation at their home. She reports an enjoyable time. Mrs. Lounsbury and Mrs. Vandermark are sisters. Cows of this and adjoining neighborhoods are being strictly inspected and tested.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Quick and family visited Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Herring last Sunday. Elting Churchwell and his uncle, Walter, are working for E. Schwab. Those who called on Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Herring Sunday were Mr. Herring's sister, Mrs. E. Douglas, and family of Jamaica, L. I., and Lester Douglas of Union Center. Mrs. E. Douglas is now 84 years of age, but is very active for her years. She stood the trip from Jamaica very well.

Men are still working on the road, which was damaged by the cloudburst of August 26. Gravel is being put on the road, which will be a good one when completed.

J. M. Herring made a business trip to Kerhonkson on Wednesday.

Masquerade Ball at Port Ewen. The fifth annual masquerade ball given by the Sons and Daughters of Liberty will be held in Pythian Hall, Port Ewen, on Friday evening, November 23. Music will be furnished by Paul Zucca. There will be refreshments, prizes for lady's prettiest costume and gentleman's most comical costume. Bus will leave from the hall to Strand every half hour.

Child Influences In Lecture Here

Learning does not begin with a child's school life, but begins at birth. Psychologists produce evidence to show that the first five years are the most important learning period. What is your child learning? His learning depends upon his guidance. Upon the number of adjustments he is able to make without strain and stress depends his success and happiness. Every influence, then, leaves its effect. Magnitudes with which he plays, words and tones which he hears, all that he sees leaves its work on his personality. These influences will be discussed on November 14, by Dr. Marguerite Wilker, educational psychologist, Cornell University, in the lecture "Should Children Obey?" The lecture will be held 2:30 o'clock in the court room of the court house. An exhibit of suitable toys and books for young girls will be displayed.

OLIVE BRIDGE.

Olive Bridge, Oct. 31.—Friday evening, November 2, in the I. O. O. F. Hall, the Farm Bureau will hold a community meeting with a fine entertainment. After the entertainment the Ladies' Aid Society will serve a salad supper.

Sunday, November 4, Mr. and Mrs. Wood of Kingston will sing in the Tongore M. E. Church. Service at 10:30 a. m. The public is invited to be present.

The Rev. O. Rice is gaining and hopes soon to return to the parsonage with Mrs. Rice.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Palen, also Mr. and Mrs. Ray Crispell of Schenectady spent Sunday in this place.

Friday, November 3, at 7:30 p. m., in the I. O. O. F. Hall at Olive Bridge, there will be a public meeting for the purpose of deciding on kind of fence to be erected around the old Tongore Cemetery, also other business regarding the incorporation of the old cemetery with the new.

All persons interested in this incorporation are earnestly requested to be present.

Mr. Sarah Jordan of Attleboro, Mass., is visiting at Valley View Farm.

Mr. Trowbridge, manager of the Mohican Store in Kingston, and his family spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Trowbridge.

The new temporary bridge over the Tongore brook is nearly completed. Traffic is passing over it, for which the people are thankful.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bishop are expected to return to their home in this place about November 1.

SHANDAKEN.

Shandaken, Oct. 31.—W. E. Risley and family of Crestkill, N. J., were at their summer home over the week end.

J. Vernon Weisbrod of New York, Charles N. Wheaton of Nulley, N. J., and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Bowser of Tenafly, N. J., were visitors in this place the week end.

Miss Addie Jansen of Lanesville was a visitor in this place on Saturday.

Conway, the plumber of Phoenixia, has been engaged in seeking for water for the Methodist parsonage in this place. He met with success and a good supply has been found. Pipes have been laid to bring the water right to the house.

The Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Hewitt of Pine Hill, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Cleveland of this place and Miss Pauline Baringer of Stuttgart, Germany, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wood on Wednesday in honor of Mr. Wood's birthday.

The Ladies' Aid Society hold their monthly meeting in the church hall on Thursday afternoon.

AT NINE O'CLOCK

AT NINE o'clock Thursday morning, November 1st and for the balance of the week, McMILLAN'S at Strand, Hasbrouck Avenue and Ferry Street, urge you to be present at their store. Aside from the fact that we are serving a souvenir for you as well as for your own or your neighbor's youngster, you will become acquainted with a new service as far as Kingston is concerned.

The Joy of Color has its influence in every home today, especially, these fall and winter days to come when much of your time will be spent indoors entertaining, etc.

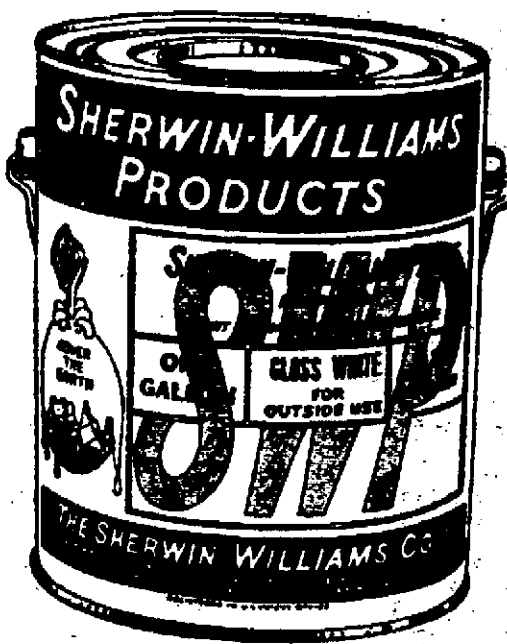

You need not envy your artistic friends because the Joy of Color will be demonstrated and explained to you by men from The Sherwin-Williams Company's plants. Furthermore you will become acquainted with many of the latest decorative ideas and see for the first time the newest and most up-to-date types of finishing materials actually applied.

McMILLAN'S, the oldest paint store in the Hudson Valley was established in 1834 almost a century ago. Our big business has grown because of our determined policy to offer the public of Kingston the best service also merchandise of the highest quality. In keeping with this policy, we have taken on a complete stock of Sherwin-Williams Products, the largest paint and varnish makers in the world. This great company controls the production of its raw materials from the mines and other sources into the finished product. They own and operate 54 separate plants comprising 157 factory buildings. They produce 60,000 paint formulae, each for a certain purpose. They manufacture for you a quality product for each surface condition or need. Little wonder that the "Cover the Earth" trade mark has been the public guide and preference for years in paint buying.

At McMILLAN'S you will find a different paint service than you have ever experienced before. THIS IS PAINT HEADQUARTERS. Here you will see the famous Household Painting Guide that stops mistakes in painting. From it you will select a product for your work; the actual recommendations of the world's largest paint and varnish makers. You will find McMILLAN'S to be an authoritative source of knowledge on any painting or decorating problem. You will find a helpful cheerful desire to assist you and not an unpleasant attempt to sell something. We want you really to consider this Paint Headquarters your headquarters for assistance on painting at any time. If not convenient for you to call at our store we are as near as your telephone and will gladly deliver any material you need. We will also send our representative to inspect any work you are contemplating. You are never under any obligations for service rendered by McMILLAN'S.

To Home Owners

Always secure the services of a good painter for like the doctor he knows what to prescribe. We are acquainted with all of the best painters in town and will be glad to recommend a competent and reasonable man.

Rev. E. A. Bookout Died on Monday

Former pastor of First Ebenezer M. E. Church died at Hyde Park after illness of several months—Funeral Thursday.

The Rev. Eugene A. Bookout, 53, of the Hyde Park M. E. Church, died at 4:45 Monday afternoon after an illness of several months, at Hyde Park. Death was due to heart trouble.

Mr. Bookout was born in Roxbury, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bookout. He was prepared for the ministry in Cazenovia Seminary, Cazenovia, and in 1899 married Mae Green, who survives him.

His first pastorate was at Lexington and Arena, after which he was appointed to membership in the New York Methodist Episcopal Conference in 1903. Following this he was pastor at Gilboa for four years, at Whitesboro for four years, at Sugarloaf and Florida, one year, at White Lake, New York, and at Port Jervis for four years, at Port Jervis and Edinburg for five years, at Great Barrington and Sheffield, Mass., three years. His last pastorate, before he went to Hyde Park, was at Tivoli, where he remained five years.

Mr. Bookout was a member of Hyde Park Lodge, I. O. O. F.; Gilboa Lodge, F. and A. M.; and made a Royal Arch mason while in Great Barrington.

Surviving him are his wife, one daughter, Carolyn, a student at Syracuse University; his mother, Mrs. George Bookout, of Roxbury; two brothers, the Rev. Tallman Bookout of the Presbyterian Church of Delhi, and George Bookout of Sheffield, Ill., and one sister, Mrs. Frank LaPoint of Coeymans.

Funeral services will be held from the Hyde Park M. E. Church, Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock, with the Rev. Dr. Walter H. Loftus, district superintendent, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Emmet Green of Coxsack, the Rev. Fred E. Stacey of the Washington Street M. E. Church, Poughkeepsie, the Rev. N. F. Blakney of Great Barrington, and the Rev. Conrad Metzger of Red Hook.

Mr. Metzger and Raymond Shaw of Coxsack will sing solos. The bearers will be members of the official board. Burial will be in the family plot at Roxbury cemetery, where services will be conducted at the grave by the Rev. C. W. Smith of Roxbury and the Rev. M. I. Bennett of Liberty.

Ornate Touch Is Feature of Hats

Brims, Fancy Trims Bring Headgear Into Keeping With Costume.

Millinery has at last returned to a more feminine style of design. The return has been promised and anticipated year after year, but the mode that came in with radical fashions in general, observes a fashion writer in the New York Times, has been held to tenaciously and any departures from it have proved to be but passing phases. No type of hat has ever rivaled the vogue of the cloche, which came with the "pencil" silhouette and low waistline. This plain, matter-of-fact compromise between a toque and a poke, which all but completely conceals the coiffure, still carries on notwithstanding the eloquent appeals of artists and of the needleworkers, flower and feather workers, but since it will not be relinquished milliners are giving it a softer and more decorative aspect for the fall and winter.

This is to be seen in a large and varied collection of new hats, which are fine in quality of fabric and workmanship and especially beautiful in the use of colors, which are emphasized in all of this season's millinery. They are built close to the face, but in varying shapes, create individual styles. The uncompromising, severely cut edge has been gradually fitted with curves and folds and with diversified treatments evolved into a brim of one sort and another. In even the slightest of these the outline is made to show the hair, and the original cloche thus becomes a flattering headdress.

In the simplest tailored models the brim is cut close to the crown at the back and widens with the drooping line toward the front. Some of these shapes have a brim that is sufficiently wide to provide a shade for the eyes and which broadens at the sides in a manner that suits almost every type of face and coiffure.

Many clever ways of shaping this little brim are shown in the latest styles, each with but a slight variation, and all with utmost simplicity. The one apparent requisite is that the hat shall have something in the way of trimming. The utterly bald dome of felt that passed for millinery two seasons ago is not among the exhibitions of this autumn.

Tam in Several Models.

In one exclusive collection chosen with expert discrimination by a New York house are examples of exquisite workmanship on original designs. In this the tam is shown in several models of different colors and arrangement of trimming. One that will have grateful response for all-around wear is a black tam fitting close about the face and with mushroom crown. One side is drawn far down over the ear and is finished with a large clasp of satin ribbon in three shades of rose, folded and plaited in stiff rows.

Another black tam has a crown of similar shape, on one side of which are sewn two pompons of purple silk. This type of hat, which is an adaptation of the Parisian student's beret, being other than a large star-like shape of the material applied at one side. Two colors, dark orange and rust brown velvet, are combined in a shawlcap that is attached to form a point in front, widening toward the back, where a row of dark velvet feathers is sewn across the edge.

Introducing Geometrics.

Since the couturiers of Paris have added lingerie, jewelry, other accessories and perfume to their wares, some have begun including millinery and are designing hats for the ensembles that are now so fashionable. J. Suzanne Talbot has long been making hats to go with her frocks and suits.

Felt Patterned in Off-the-Face Fashion. An Extreme Design in Turban Style Offered by Rebourg.

and was one of the first to bring the beret into conventional company. Among her new ensembles, for fall, in which she introduces geometrics, are tailored suits made of several shades or colors, carried from bottom to top, which are finished with tams made of the same material. One of the smartest models from her studio also is made of black, white and metal gray, and the hat to go with it has a band of black and white tassel on the tip of the crown. As an accessory to this distinctive outfit, by the way, Talbot shows a scarf of black fox.

The most extreme conceit in millinery brought out this season has been designed by Talbot, a medieval cap-shaped bonnet that is drawn over the head, tied with long strings under the chin and gathered into a stiff little brush tail at the back. As viewed by Miss Zayda Ben Youssef, director of the recent pageant of the Hatful Millinery association, the cloche has been a sort of artistic life-saver through radical changes. In its many variants in design and color, she says, it goes well with the best modes of the season. It will be seen widely this fall, she believes, in the new millinery fabrics, the felts, velours, velvet and the hairy cloths.

A high light of the recent pageant was an evening hat, inspired by her. The idea was born in Paris, last year, when some of the most advanced couturiers introduced a toque of tulle or other sheer stuff to match the hair or to reflect faintly a tint in the gown. Feathers, tip ends of ostrich and fancy fowl feathers were dyed in delicate tints and made into fitted turbans, a fashion that is being reproduced this season over here in a much greater range of colors. The hat shown at the exhibition, which is being made by several designers here, is so tiny and so flexible that it can be tucked into a purse or pocket and put on or taken off on occasion. It is made of luxurious velvet, metallic brocade or tissue, with paillettes or crystal embroidery. All of these reflect the elegance of an evening hat offered within the past year by L. Mounier, a skull shape completely covered with crushed grapes and leaves in slightly toned-down colors.

Embroidered With Brilliance. Another outstanding accomplishment is the dressy type of hat is that, large or small, embroidered with brilliant. This has been inspired by the vogue of black in gowns, especially velvet, among women of fashion. The hats are designed to offer a flattering contrast to the gown. They are not all of the skull shape, but come also in medium and large-brimmed sizes. They reverse the conventional order of contrasts in a costume, but quite in keeping with our period.

Apart from the crystal hats, all of the elaborate styles are presented in a variety of colors. These include gay flower and fruit shades and the rich, more quiet tones, among which are tortoise brown, Napoleon, Natter, king, flag and water blue, Spanish vine and all of the wine shades, gray, tending to oxford and gunmetal, and green in the bluish tones.

Gray is regarded by designers as the high fashion note of the season, and is used more generally in felt.

Church Service at Krumville.

"Rules and Religion" is the subject of the sermon for next Sunday morning in the Reformed Church of Krumville. The Rev. Thomas S. Braithwaite will occupy the pulpit. Services start at 11 o'clock. All are welcome to attend.

Edinville Masquerade Tonight.

A masquerade dance will be held tonight at Firemen's Hall, Edinville, for the benefit of the Catholic Church of that community. John P. Ernie's orchestra will furnish the music. A good time is promised all who attend.

BRONZE TABLET UNVEILED AT RHINEBECK SUNDAY

Sunday afternoon a bronze tablet to the memory of the Palatine settlers was unveiled in the Stone Church at Rhinebeck with impressive ceremonies. The tablet was presented by the Chancellor, Livingston Chapter, Daughters of American Revolution. The inscription on the tablet which was placed on the outside of the church follows: "The Palatine Lutheran Church of St. Peter the Apostle, known for more than a century as the Stone Church. Within its walls stood the First Church built in 1730 by the Palatine settlers to whose memory this tablet is erected by Chancellor Livingston Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and the state of New York, 1928."

will be seen this season in different materials and colors and trimmed in various ways. Dark tams with a touch of brilliant color in a large rosette of ribbon, chon of velvet, silk-tassel or fancy feather promise to have a vogue for autumn and winter.

The season is opulent in fabrics for millinery. Felt, particularly, is still fashionable. One model is made of a new kind called sofet and in a style that shows the hair is cut close to the head in front and has the crown stitched in creases that radiate toward each side, simulating a bow across the front. The back is long and two small silk pompons in tan and scarlet are attached to the brim over one ear.

A new version of the tam shape in beige has a mushroom crown with a cluster of tucks at one side toward the back, and a brown satin ribbon. Drawn through slits along the turn of the crown to form large spots, is tied in a bow at one side. A skull-cap model of the new felt in cafe au lait is stitched in ridges with an upward movement in front, where a brown novelty feather is fastened flat across the crown.

A hat of fine quality and color is made after the new Agnes poke all in one shade of beige with no trim-

Artist Believed Victim of Bomb

Buffalo, Oct. 31 (P).—Frank Mirolla, a commercial artist, died in a hospital this morning of injuries suffered when an explosion believed to have been caused by a bomb, wrecked his automobile.

The artist's wife informed police that her husband had had several controversies recently with neighbors. She said she believed one of them had placed the explosive in his car.

Mirolla was blown through the roof of the automobile. The machine and garage in which it was standing were wrecked.

Mirolla, his wife said, had an engagement to confer with a downtown firm on a series of drawings he had prepared. He discussed some of the details with her, she said, and then went to the garage. Soon after she heard an explosion which rocked the neighborhood and shattered glass in buildings nearby.

Women and children ran into the street and were gathered only with the arrival of police and firemen, who found Mirolla unconscious thirty feet from the garage.

Questioning of the woman, police said, developed several leads. Early this afternoon John G. Reville, assistant detective chief, said he was "hopeful of making an arrest soon."

PLAN TO START BERMUDA FLIGHT ON THURSDAY

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 31 (P).—The "Flying Fish," the seaplane bearing George Palmer Putnam, New York publisher; Lieutenant W. N. Lancaster, pilot, and Captain Harry Lyon, navigator, who directed the course of the "Southern Cross" to Australia, will leave Norfolk this afternoon for Manteo, N. C., a fishing village on Roanoke Island, off the coast of North Carolina, whence it is planned to start the proposed non-stop flight for Bermuda tomorrow morning. Manteo was selected by the crew of the Flying Fish late yesterday after the plane had been overhauled here.

Bermuda, the goal of the Flying Fish, lies 660 miles almost due east of Manteo.

Playing Politics In South America

The Rotarian in charge of the program for the luncheon this week having absconded—anyway, he was absent—the Kingston Rotary Club enjoyed a rather sumptuous duck dinner at the Governor Clinton, followed by impromptu talks by John Porter and Maj. Ashton Hart.

Mr. Porter told some interesting and amusing incidents of his recent visit to the club in Elvira, Ohio, and Major Hart made a political address that greatly enlightened his audience in the ways of practical politics as played in South America, where a governor ensured his re-nomination by placing a cordon of state police around the residence of the leader of the opposition, with instructions to let nobody pass in or out, until the man was starved out and had to promise to be good. In like manner, when the opposition controlled the local judge and the administration voters had nearly all been put in jail, the governor appointed his secretary of state, a bedizened moron, as federal judge, and kept him in office until all the administration men had been freed and the opposition men had been put in jail.

The governor was renominated unanimously and elected almost unanimously.

Major Hart was in South America at the time and was a friend of the governor and acquainted with most of the persons whose acts he described.

Visitors were present from Catskill, Oneonta, Syracuse and Middletown.

L. S. Winne Homestead Sold. The ten room dwelling together with the two story garage and spacious grounds, which was occupied and owned for a long time by the late L. S. Winne as a home, has been purchased from the present owners, Harry Steward and wife, by Seth Jocelyn and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Jocelyn have already taken possession of their new purchase and the Stewards have purchased a new six room dwelling located at 113 Emerson street, from Mrs. Amelia Kaercher. They are erecting a large garage and will take possession of their new home about November 1. These sales were negotiated through the real estate agency of Frank S. Hyatt, 284 Fair street.

Entertainment at Rifton. An entertainment will be given in Rifton Hall Friday evening, November 2, at 8 o'clock for the benefit of Rifton M. E. Church. A good time is promised and it is hoped that the attendance will be large.

Football Tickets At A. J. Murphy's

Tickets for the Georgetown-Carnegie Tech football game, which will be held in the stadium at Albany on Saturday, November 10, may be obtained from A. J. Murphy's sporting goods store on East Strand.

Samuel E. Aronowitz of Albany, a friend of A. J. Murphy, Jr., has reserved a block of the best tickets for the football fans of Kingston. Georgetown has a great football team this year, and so has Carnegie Tech. Both teams have been rated highly by the experts and the game on November 10 will be one of the most important games to be played in the east on that date.

An attempt is being made to establish Albany as a college football center. The new Albany stadium seats 15,000. If this season's football is well patronized, the capacity of the stadium will be increased next year to 20,000.

Full information about the Georgetown-Carnegie Tech game may be obtained from Mr. Murphy.

Hallowe'en Ball at Armory Tonight

The annual Hallowe'en Ball of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will be held this evening in the state armory. The ball will be a masquerade ball and six prizes will be awarded by a committee of judges for the most original costume, the fanciest costume and the most comical. Music for dancing will be furnished by Malsenholder's orchestra. It is expected that there will be a large attendance.

Turkey Supper at St. Marion. A number of people from this city will auto on Thursday evening to St. Marion to attend the turkey supper to be served at St. Marion Church Hall. Many of them, by reason of having attended similar suppers served by the women of the St. Marion church, know of the excellence of the menu. The supper will be served from 6 to 8 o'clock.

ELECT JUSTICE HUBBS.

These citizens who believe that the bench should be kept out of politics will cast their ballots for Irving C. Hubbs, Republican candidate for Associate Justice of the Court of Appeals, next Tuesday. A year ago, when Tammany Democrats used for Republican endorsement of John F. O'Brien, then Democratic candidate for the post, Republican leaders acquiesced in the interests of a non-partisan bench. Though there was no contract of record it was plainly understood that the 1928 vacancy in the Court of Appeals was to go to a Republican. When the time came, however, to fulfill the implied promise of a bipartisan endorsement, Governor Smith and his advisers nominated a Democrat.

There is nothing new in this policy of attempting to man the bench of Democrats. Governor Smith's own official list of appointments, compiled for the Democratic National Committee by his Secretary of State, Robert Moses, shows that with exception of appointment of Associate Justice of the Appellate Division, but one Republican, Supreme Court Justice Sanford W. Smith, has been appointed to the Supreme Court. Where Republican Supreme Court Justices have been appointed Associate Justices of the Appellate Division, the Governor has had only partial control over the politics of his decisions. The majority of such justices must reside in the district, pursuant to the provisions of the Constitution. Justice Hubbs plainly has been made a victim of Tammany trickery. The people should and will resent Tammany's attempt to throw the highest court in the state into the political cauldron.

HAMILTON WARD.

The ability, training and character of the next Attorney General are considerations of first importance favoring the election of Hamilton Ward, Republican candidate. For thirty years Mr. Ward has been steadily climbing the ladder of his profession, and today is widely recognized as one of the foremost lawyers of this state, an authority upon many questions of constitutional law.

But perhaps the most impressive testimonial to his legal abilities comes from his fellow lawyers of the Eighth Judicial District who have united in emphatic endorsement of his candidacy. Many of them have been arrayed against him in hard-fought legal battles, and not a few have been decisively worsted.

Hamilton Ward has been effectively active in many fields of public service outside the law. He is honored by his fellow citizens for his tireless efforts to develop the Allamuchy State Park, and all veterans of the Spanish War, in which he served with distinction, hold him in grateful regard for state and national legislation enacted in their behalf through his instrumentality. The state needs an Attorney General of his calibre to replace Albert Ottinger in able and devoted service to the people.

CURIOUS ADVERTISEMENTS.

Certain quaint advertisements, vividly recalling conditions of bygone times, are cited from the London Gazette of the 1680's by the writer of an article in the English magazine still surprisingly entitled The Nineteenth Century. One of them, regarding like many advertisements of the period to the escape of bond servants and runaway apprentices, reads as follows:

John Bolton (born at Dunham) about 29 or 32 years of age, round faced, of a fresh complexion, full eyes, short brown hair curled very tight, pretty tall and slender, in a brown coat, and a little black velvet waistcoat, from his Master's house, the 15th instant with a black horse and a black dog, etc.

NEW PALTZ

New Paltz, Oct. 21.—The New Paltz Farm Bureau decided not to enter the dramatic contest this year in which they won the county cup last year. Nevertheless they held their annual social evening at Grange Hall Monday evening. Community singing led by Miss Nance with Mrs. Charles Johnston at the piano opened the program. Miss Nance urged as many as possible to attend the child guidance lectures by Dr. Wilker at Kingston. Mrs. Frank Elliott gave a reading, "What the Choir Said About the New Bonnet," and Miss Anna DuBois played a piano solo, responding to an encore. After a talk by Fred DuBois on the Farm Bureau a one act play was given, "Between the Soup and the Savory." The scene was laid in an English kitchen and the action was supposed to take place between the serving of the first and last courses of a dinner. The cast was: Cook, Mrs. George Boettlinger; parlor maid, Mrs. Harold DuBois; kitchen maid, Miss Ida DuBois. The play was well done and all present had a very enjoyable evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest D. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Winkoop of Newburgh were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Webb Kniffen on Sunday.

A number of New Paltz people were shoppers in Kingston on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith entertained guests from Marlborough and New Paltz on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Coy of Marlborough visited relatives in town last Sunday.

The Standard Bearers' Society of the Methodist Church met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Marjorie Smith on Main street.

Mrs. William McCauley spent the past week with her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Sears, at Marlborough.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elliott were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold DuBois last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hasbrouck and family and Libbie Hasbrouck moved to Stissing and Bangall, Dutchess county, and spent the day last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wright entertained Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Aldrich of Lake Katrine last Saturday and Sunday and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Aldrich on Sunday.

Thomas Van Dusen and David Smith of Ellenville were recent visitors in Libertyville.

Mrs. D. Janson entertained friends over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. H. DuBois had out-of-town callers on Sunday.

Mrs. Hazel Yorks and daughter, Freda, and some friends were callers at the country farm the past week.

Anton Myers and Fred Yorks of Libertyville were visitors in town the past week.

Nicholas Kernstein called on friends in Rosendale and Rock Lock recently.

Albert Keator, near New Paltz, entertained callers from Stone Ridge the past week.

The following school societies have held benefit movies: Akonian, High School A. A., Clonian. Now the Sigma Pi is contemplating holding one.

A number of members of the Reformed Church met in the church parlor on Tuesday evening. There were flowers—cosmos and dahlias—and music by the Dutch Arms orchestra. A violin solo, "Andalusian Serenade," played by Mr. Beragon with Mrs. Dewitt C. Seward as accompanist, was followed by an encore. But the faculty singers were less responsive to applause. They would only sing once. So the farmers and their wives succeeded them. Miss Helen Hasbrouck appeared as part of the program. Mr. Parker appeared as soloist. The items of the budget were explained by the Rev. E. D. Minor. For one thing, payments on the new organ which is now being installed in the main auditorium of the church will be completed at the rate of $1,000 a year. The congregation has also voted a raise of $500 in Mr. Minor's salary. Mr. Minor submitted the budget to Mr. Seward, who testified that the sum expended of outside benevolence was $8,424. A number of people present cheerfully raised the amount of their pledges for next year. Indications were that the required amount would be easily raised. The sense of cheerful hospitality was deepened by the good coffee and sandwiches that came last.

Mrs. Emma Paltridge and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Jordan of Highland were in town last Friday night.

Twenty-five young ladies from the New Paltz Normal enjoyed an outing last Saturday at the old Dover stone church, a natural formation of rock at Wassale, Dutchess county.

The October issue of the school paper, the Paltzonette, is now out. The literary contests of the periodical are very well executed and provides interesting reading. The new way in which the advertisements are spaced and set up has received much favorable comment. Subscriptions may be taken out from Edna Steen, who is circulation manager.

Arrangements have already commenced for the Sunday school Christmas entertainment of the Methodist Sunday school.

Many people say they do not know how to read the Bible. The Fellowship Club, which is the Methodist organization for teachers and students at the Normal School, offers an opportunity to overcome this serious defect. At their fortnightly classes on religion they propose to study the literature of the Bible for a few weeks in order to learn how to approach its significant message. These classes meet alternate Thursdays at 4:15 at the Methodist Church. Commencing with the next class on November 1, the general public will be welcomed as auditors. The class will study literary forms of story, oratory, essay, novel, lyric, rhapsody, history and document, with illustrative readings. The classes last about an hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mack and family are moving into their home on Grove street which they recently purchased of Miss Mary G. Flynn.

Miss Laura Hasbrouck has returned home after spending a few days in the city.

Are your show windows only mirrors?

Do people stop before your store during the day and use your display window as a mirror? Do they pause—adjust a tie, a hat, a frock, or powder a shiny nose? And do they then just pass on?

If this is so, your show window space is not fulfilling its purpose.

Daytime reflections from show windows always result when the intensity of the light inside the window is less than it is outside. Artificial show window lighting will overcome this condition.

Let our Lighting Service Department help you to overcome this condition by submitting carefully worked out recommendations for daytime lighting for your show windows.

The new Buick is the new Style

Men and women on every street--
--in every city and town--are pronouncing the new BUICK with Masterpiece Bodies by Fisher, the most beautiful automobile of the day.

Never before in the history of motor car manufacture have the motorists of America welcomed any new automobile as they are welcoming the Silver Anniversary Buick with new Masterpiece Bodies by Fisher.

Sweeping into the market at a time when motor car lines were practically standardized—when imitation was destroying individuality—these epic Buick creations introduced an entirely new mode—

A mode of body-symmetry—of size and magnificence—of soft contours instead of straight lines—of embossed side and hood panels involving the most costly steel paneling work employed on any car in the world!

And as the weeks have passed—and the full significance of Buick's achievement has become apparent to the public—enthusiasm for this car has swelled and grown to unprecedented proportions!

Buick sales records have been broken! Production schedules have been increased again and again! The great Buick plants are working to the limit of their capacity to supply the demand.

Republicans to Rally Thursday

A big Republican mass meeting and rally will be held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in Pythian Hall, Broadway and Thomas street, which will be addressed by William McClellan of New York city, chairman of the New York Legislature's Hoover Committee, and Corporation Counsel Harry H. Flemming. Both are interesting speakers and will discuss the issues of the campaign. The general public is invited.

IDEAL BEAU MUST HAVE JOB, SAYS ATLANTA DEBS

Atlanta (AP)—A serious-minded man who sends flaps, who does not dance with his eyes closed, a man who has a job, a sense of humor and an automobile, makes the most desirable beau, say members of this year's debutante club here.

"Of course," said one of the society misses by way of amendment, "a car isn't absolutely necessary, but it helps a lot."

But all insisted the man must have a job, and a good job at that. None of this "two can live as cheaply as one" palaver for them. Didn't they know girls who had tried it?

Ideals of the men were not discussed by the debs. "You have to fit the ideals to the man," said one.

As for the type of men, the debutantes were noncommittal. There is a tradition that each debutante should have the two beaux at the Piedmont Driving Club's Halloween dance, one to sit on each side of her at the flower-banked table when members of the debutante club make their first formal appearance in a body. This, one Atlanta woman writer observes, is to "keep the public guessing." So the debutantes refrain from discussion as to whether ladies prefer tall, dark-skinned men or blonds.

DAK GROVE SCHOOL SHOW MUCH ENJOYED BY CROWD

The minstrel given by the pupils of Oak Grove school, near Stone Ridge, on Saturday evening, was a success. The crowd was especially delighted with the combination band played by Matt Hasbrouck of Stone Ridge, before the show and during the plate supper which was donated and served by the patrons of the school district.

Early in the evening a large crowd gathered so that even standing room was at a premium. Forty-three dollars were cleared as a result of the generosity of the crowd. This money will be used for a mimeograph and a book case including new books required for the grades.

The teacher, Mrs. Edna L. Kennedy, and pupils wish to thank all who cooperated so willingly in time, money and donations to make this affair one of the outstanding school events of the season.

No. 4 P. T. A. Activities.

The Parent-Teacher Association of School No. 4 held a meeting Tuesday afternoon. Three new members were received, Mrs. Frank Elmen-dorf, Mrs. John Lindhurst and Mrs. Edwin Lammman. It was voted to hold a rummage sale on Friday, November 9, in the basement of the school and everyone having clothing, books or shoes to contribute was requested to leave them at the school house before that date. It was voted to contribute $5 toward materials for Miss Holmes's part time girls' sewing class. The luncheon conference of the Ulster County P. T. A. presidents was discussed and it was decided to send the president, Mrs. R. H. Van Valkenburgh, and the vice president, Mrs. Oscar Goodsell, to this conference which will be held on Saturday at 12:30 p. m. at the high school.

PLATTEKILL GRANGE TO HOLD CHICKEN SUPPER AND DANCE

Every one is looking forward to Thursday evening, November 8, the date of the annual chicken supper at Plattekill Grange Hall. This event is heralded as one of the big features in the year's program and all those who attended last year will be there with added reinforcements. The supper will be served from 6:30 o'clock on and will consist of a complete dinner menu.

Following the supper Pardee and Allen of Kingston will furnish music for old-fashioned and modern dancing. Tickets are available this week from the following committee: Harold Mills of Leptoadale, J. B. Minard and Myron Foster of Plattekill, Wilson Edmunds of Sylva, J. M. Chase, Seth Lippincott, Edgar Kamp and Ira Cronk of Walkhill, Halsey Sherwood of New Hurley, Gerard Thorne of Walden, and Eugene Paltridge and Nelson Hedges of Modena. The sale of tickets is limited so those planning on attending should secure them from the above committee at an early date.

The Brain That Counts

Dr. Charles Mayo
The noted surgeon, Dr. Charles Mayo, in addressing a large convention of boys recently, said in part:
"You can get along with a wooden head. The physical value of a man is not so much. Man as an animal is worth about eight cents. Seven bars of soap, enough to whitewash a barn coop, phosphorus enough to cover the heads of a thousand needles, is not so much, you see. It is the brain that counts, but in order that your brain may be kept in good shape you must keep your body fit and well. That cannot be done if you drink liquor."

"A man who has to drag around a brain that is a danger and a menace to society ought to go off to the woods and live alone. We do not tolerate the obvious use of morphine or cocaine or opium and we should not tolerate intoxicating liquor because I tell you these things are what break down the command of the individual over his own life and his own destiny."

"Through alcoholic stimulation a man loses his co-ordination. That is why liquor is no advantage to the brain. You hear people tell how they had their wits quickened for the first half-hour by liquor, but they don't tell you how later their body could not act in co-ordination with their brain."

"You will hear on every side men bewail the loss of their drink, of their personal rights, but the rights of the few who cannot see ahead or care for the future of their nation at heart must be regulated to safeguard that great body of future citizens who are now ready to step into the ranks."

"You boys have something ahead of you in the problem of preventing the return of liquor. We have not lived up to our laws, but I repeat, education is what we need to combat this condition. When we have our younger generation completely educated we will not have types who say: 'Why should I not have my rights as a citizen?'"

"It is through the boys of today that we hope to see a sound and everlasting prohibition worked out in this country. If there ever was a great man who accomplished anything through the use of alcohol I would like to have the fact pointed out."

"We in the United States of America have tried to give you a field of action free from the barricades which used to be set up by the legal liquor traffic. Keep yourselves free from all entangling habits. Remember, it's the brain that counts."

"Roxy" Male Quartet At Legion Victory Ball

One of the attractions that will make up the five acts of entertainment at the American Legion Victory Ball, in the armory on Monday, November 12, will be the famous Roxy Male Quartet. These artists have been obtained through the courtesy of Mr. Rothafel (Roxy) who is a loyal member of the American Legion.

This quartet are members of Roxy's Gang, and appear at Roxy's Theatre and in the studio to broadcast every Monday night from 7:30 to 9.

They are finished artists, known the country over, and the Victory Ball committee feels sure that these songsters, direct from Roxy's, will attract many to the Victory Ball.

The most modern amplifying system will be installed in the armory for the Victory Ball, which will insure that the entire novel entertainment program will be heard and enjoyed by all.

Nothing appeals to music lovers more than a fine male quartet, with its sweet-voiced harmonies. The Roxy quartet will have a program that will be varied and will suit the most fastidious.

As the Criterion Male Quartet, this ensemble has recorded for all the leading talking machine companies, and have such an extensive repertoire that they have put on full-evening recitals in many of the important cities of the United States.

The Legion boys are bringing to Kingston many musical stars. This is the first of the five acts of entertainment to be announced by the Victory Ball committee.

Due to increased business and the necessity of more spacious shop room the local Chevrolet organization, the Colonial City Chevrolet, Inc., will shortly begin the erection of a large modern service station on O'Neill street near the Ulster & Delaware Railroad tracks. This service station will be a modern one story building 60 by 150 feet in size with 5,000 square feet of floor space.

Work will be started on the erection of the building as soon as possible and the building will be ready for use before the spring rush of work.

The present building at Broadway and Maiden Lane which is now used as a sales and service station will be used exclusively for sales purposes when the service station is ready for occupancy. The present show rooms for new cars will be maintained as a salesroom and show room while the portion of the building now used as a shop will be altered and made available for show rooms for used cars. The volume of used cars which are annually turned over by such an organization is a problem which needs nearly as much attention as the new car sales. In order to make the present shop available for the display of used cars the interior will be remodeled, big display windows will be installed and the present garage entrance doors will be replaced with large French windows which will give access to the show room as well as provide display room.

It is the intention of the organization to complete the alterations as soon as possible in order that the business may be handled more readily. The new building on O'Neill street just a short distance off Broadway will give the Chevrolet organization in this city one of the most modern and best equipped shops and service stations in the city.

FATHER'S PAPERS FAULTY.
AGED VETERAN CAN'T VOTE

Detroit, (AP).—After having lived 80 years in the United States, served three years with the Union army during the Civil war and having voted in every presidential election since 1865, Robert Morris, 85, discovered he is not a citizen, and not entitled to vote this year.

The unusual situation arose through a ruling by the city clerk requiring all foreign-born voters to show proof of citizenship.

Morris was born in Ireland and came to the United States when he was five. Investigation of his father's naturalization revealed an irregularity, disqualifying the son, also Mrs. Morris.

O. T. Moore, federal naturalization officer, said the fault can be corrected, but not until after the election. That is due to court routine.

Morris served with the Twenty-fourth Michigan Infantry and Battery B of the Fourth United States artillery during the Civil war. He was one of the military escort at the funeral of Abraham Lincoln.

WHITFIELD.
Oct. 31.—Mrs. Maggie Quick and granddaughter, Bernice, spent Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Vandemark at Kerhonkson.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Barley and daughter, Melvina, Deila Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Davis and daughter, Marjorie, were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin B. Davis for supper Thursday evening.

Miss Sarah Rider was a Kerhonkson visitor Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brown have purchased a new Ford car of Charles Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Davis and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. DeWitt and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Quick at Leibhardt.

Mrs. William Gillespie spent part of the week visiting relatives at Fernside and Middletown, returning home Wednesday.

Miss Mabel Baker spent Thursday and Friday with her cousin, Minnie Horzbeck.

WATER FIREMAN FACES
TROUBLE LOCATING FIRE

New Orleans, La., (AP).—One of the hardest jobs for a water-going fire department is finding the fire, says John J. C. Pasley, fire captain of the fire tug Deluge, guardian of New Orleans harbor.

"When a building is burning you can see where and how it is burning. When a ship is on fire, however, it's not so easy. It may be on fire in any one of a hundred places. Generally, though, you can find the fire by searching for the hottest place on the deck. But even after you have done this, your work has just started, because then you have to learn the construction of the ship, the arrangement of bulkheads and hatches, and learn the nature of the cargo."

The Deluge, the captain says, has saved about four calls a month in addition to emergency tasks of various kinds.

A. G. O. F. Carl Party.
Arctas Lodge, 1. O. O. F., will hold a card party in their rooms, corner of Broadway and Brewster street, this evening. This party will be in the nature of a Halloween social, and prizes direct from the farm will be awarded. A large gathering of card players is anticipated. The lodge will appreciate cooperation in helping to make this party a success.

Aluminum Inventor, Honored By Oberlin Where Discovery Made

Oberlin College October 30 dedicated a tablet to the memory of Charles M. Hall who worked his way through the institution by beating carpets and mowing lawns, and left it $12,000,000 when he died. He discovered the electrolytic process of making aluminum in a shed which may be seen at the rear of the home (above). The tablet will be placed on the corner wall of the home. Hall is pictured as he looked in his student days.

Oberlin, O., Oct. 31 (AP).—A boy anyone could perfect a process whereby aluminum could be made on a commercial scale he not only would be a benefactor to the world, but would lay up a great fortune.

The professor's memoirs quote Hall as saying: "I'm going for that metal."

Six months later Hall came to the laboratory and said: "Professor, I've got it." In his hand lay a dozen little globules of aluminum, the first in this country.

Jewett pulled out his watch and noted that he had a class.

"Return," he told the student, "in two hours and tell me all about it."

A few months later the same invention was achieved by Paul L. V. Heroult in France. Controversy over who was first with the invention led to the court action, which testimony of his old mentor in chemistry, now dead, and Jewett's good memory of that event later resulted in Hall winning a law suit involving ownership of the fabulously important process.

The tablet on the house at East College and Pleasant street, unveiled Tuesday reads:

"In This House, Charles Martin Hall discovered the electrolytic process of making aluminum, Feb. 23, 1886, the year following his graduation from Oberlin College, thus making available for industry a metal long known but little used."

The life story of the earnest young student of chemistry is fiction in every day life.

Professor Jewett took care before he died to record his association with Hall. He recalled him as a boy of 14, coming to his laboratory to buy test tubes with money he had scraped together.

One day in class, said Jewett, he remarked to his students that if

Big Crowd Hears Attorney Tuttle

U. S. Attorney Says Recognition of Social Responsibility and Obligation to Public Max and Amy Box Will Help Solve Present Problems.

The auditorium of St. James M. E. Church was filled on Tuesday evening with an audience anxious to hear U. S. Attorney Charles H. Tuttle talk from his wide experience of life, both professional and personal, on "Law, Liberty and License."

It was quite a bit after the advertised time for the address when Mrs. Harry P. Van Wageningen, chairman of the Uster County Committee on Law Enforcement, two other officers of the committee and the Rev. Mr. Black, pastor of the church, appeared on the platform, but without Mr. Tuttle.

After welcoming all present, Mrs. Van Wageningen told the audience that Mr. Tuttle had been held to close an important case, so late as to miss the train he expected to take, but was being brought from Highland by auto by Dr. Van Wageningen and it was hoped that he would shortly arrive. She then called upon Mrs. Rich to sing the verses of The Battle Hymn of The Republic, which she did, the audience joining heartily in the refrain.

A prayer was offered by Mr. Black and then Mrs. Van Wageningen, recalling that he had on previous occasions spoken elsewhere in the interest of law enforcement, called upon the pastor for a short address. The graciousness with which Mr. Black accepted the situation and did his bit, which was a very telling, frank and convincing talk on the subject of the evening, called forth the hearty commendation of the audience which was also impressed with the force of his remarks, and yet appreciated his Tuttle that he wished "that man would come."

Mr. Tuttle's Address.

After expressing his sincere regret at keeping the audience waiting through his inability to make the earlier train, Mr. Tuttle at once began his address, which in spite of its awesome title of "Law, Liberty and License," had a fine touch of the poetry of life.

How to preserve the majesty of the law, to increase respect for it, and also how to find ways and means to check crime, and how to find a more scientific system for the enforcement of law were problems considered, but in a very human rather than in a pedantic manner.

Dealt with in some detail, the speaker considered this present crime wave to reflect seriously the indifference of the individual. The ballot box and the jury box are today showing the indifference to responsibility in our communities on the part of society and have much to do with the crime problem. Mr. Tuttle found that we must look beyond the cause of so much crime to some means of prevention. Social injustice whether of the wage scale, poor labor surroundings, poor housing, etc., is a sure cause of crime, and society must assume the responsibility of counteracting such injustices if it would find some preventive measure.

Again it must change the point of view, in many instances, in order to create in the minds of men loyalty instead of disloyalty to our country and its laws. Mr. Tuttle told appealingly of two lads who came under his observation during the late war, friend "Casey," and friend "Julius," both of whom getting the changed point of view of the Great Adventure of our country under our flag, learned from their inner experience to know the difference between Law, Liberty and License.

Peace More Trying Than War.

Great as was the task and mutual burden held in common during the late war, Mr. Tuttle considered the present condition of peace which we are all living through in common, to be much more trying, and he was emphatic in stating that there is no short cut, no easy way by means of which we can readjust and lift up the character of our citizenship. This must come through the spirit of adventure of America on the common ground of brotherhood under one flag. Our American Democracy is carrying a heavier burden of responsibility than any country and we must realize that necessary control must come from within. It cannot successfully come from without.

The greatest and most insidious enemy of law and liberty today was shown to be the spirit of lawlessness, whether on the part of a large group of people, or on the part of public officials. Should the keystone of our respect for law weaken under the ceaseless attacks made upon it, it would be appalling and staggering to think of what would happen.

Greater than America's wealth, or learning, or laws, or its heroes living or dead, Mr. Tuttle considered the American Constitution, with its elasticity for the states and its unity of the federation. We must therefore apply our religious and civic and individual education to its upholding. Our adherence to the good, the beautiful and the true will give us a nation, "Life" and "Life more abundantly," and in our civic character we will the better appreciate "Law, Liberty and License," which has been challenged, and indeed we need that challenge.

Sees "A Light" in America.

As we recognize our social responsibility, our obligation to the ballot box and the jury box, and enter into the spirit of adventure under the American flag, Attorney Tuttle is sure our present problems will disappear, crime will decline. He closed with the quoting of a word used by Rabbi Wise, the first word uttered by white lips over America, on October 12, 1492, from the deck of a little ship which having set out in the spirit of adventure and a common bond of brotherhood and many nationalities was the expression of the great Genoese, "Light." And America should be a "Light" to the brotherhood of man, lighting all men who shall go forward in a consecrated spirit of adventure. The audience sensed the genuineness and fine spirit of the man as even more convincing of the truth he presented, than the splendid words he uttered.

KYSERIKE.

Kyserike, Oct. 31.—A very large number attended the surprise party tendered Chester Osterhoudt at his home Tuesday night. There was dancing and games, and several solos were given. A bountiful luncheon was served at 12 o'clock and then dancing continued until a wee hour in the morning. Attendants from out of town were Miss Dunham of Kingston, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stephen and Mr. and Mrs. Sutter and daughter, all of Jersey. All reported a fine time. Mr. and Mrs. Osterhoudt were considered royal entertainers.

Mrs. Dave Mickie spent Thursday with Mrs. Chester Osterhoudt. Miss Amy Payton called on Mrs. F. Traphagen Saturday.

Mrs. Beatrice Van Demark made a short call at her mother's Thursday.

Mrs. George Davidson and daughter, Mrs. Joe Bogat, spent Friday with Mrs. Chester Osterhoudt.

Mrs. Fred Traphagen and children called on Mrs. Osterhoudt Friday.

All are very glad to see that Edward Hardenberg has nearly completed painting his house.

All are glad to see that they have started to concrete the cistern at the Kyserike Creamery.

It was reported one deer was shot by one of the men who went with Mr. Henderson.

LOST? Well not lost, exactly, rather strayed a bit too far afield. That's the uncomfortable position "Rags" finds himself in as darkness begins to fall. But he really isn't lost because a Freeman lost ad will restore him to his master, just as these same little ads have restored hundreds of pets and other lost articles to their rightful owners.

SENATE RECORD AIDS LOCKWOOD

Republican Candidate for Lieutenant-Governor Was Member of Both Houses.

Charles C. Lockwood, nominated for Lieutenant-Governor, was for eight years—four consecutive terms—a member of the State Senate over which the Lieutenant-Governor presides. He was born in Brooklyn, of American lineage; his father was a postman. The Senator resides at 564 Greene avenue. He was a member of the Assembly before becoming a State Senator and is now one of the Transit Commission in New York City, a body having supervision over subway operations.

All day and every day, and at all hours of the day and night, there are from two hundred thousand to half a million persons constantly traveling underground in New York City on trains which during the "rush hours" run at very short headway. In addition to this huge volume of constant traffic there are from fifty thousand to one hundred and fifty thousand persons constantly traveling on the elevated railroad, structures running in the air and built on supporting columns resting on the streets. To supervise, coordinate and regulate this business requires great executive ability of the very highest order.

While in the Legislature, Mr. Lockwood, known widely as "The Senator" in New York City, gained distinction through his efforts to improve the school system of the State and to obtain adequate compensation for the teachers. He was Chairman of the Committee on Education. Speaking of the Lockwood Teachers' Salary bill, Frank B. Gilbert, Deputy Commissioner of Education, wrote: "I feel that the State, the public and the teachers owe to you a great debt for what you have done in the cause of education."

During the World War period there was a woeful shortage of housing for tenants in New York City and some "gouging landlords" sought to take advantage of this unhappy condition. As Chairman of the Lockwood Housing Committee, Mr. Lockwood had passed what was known as the Lockwood Rent law by which the homes of thousands were saved to them and their families. Referring to this, the New York Times said editorially: "By the adoption of the Lockwood rent law it is computed that forty thousand or more tenants were saved from summary eviction."

As the result of many and useful activities and his large acquaintance and many friends in all political parties, Senator Lockwood has, whenever a candidate, received the support of many voters of all parties. The Republican candidate for Lieutenant-Governor is Chairman of the Republican County Committee in Kings, the most populous county in New York State. Through his active service in the Albany Legislature, Senator Lockwood became well acquainted with many of the problems of government so far as they relate to "up-State" matters in New York and is this year a candidate for the first time for a State-wide office.

Local Dry Agents Stage Two Raids

Federal agents from the Kingston enforcement office staged a raid at New Vernon, Orange county, Tuesday and seized 25 cases of alleged home brew beer and placed under arrest Leslie Horton who they charged with possession. He was held in $500 bail by U. S. Commissioner Criss of Middletown after waiting examination, to await the action of the federal grand jury. The alleged home brew was destroyed after samples had been taken.

The agents were also called to Greenville, Greene county, to the premises of Martin Soltes, where it was alleged there was in operation a "speak easy". There the agents seized 216 gallons of alleged wine, 15 cases of alleged home brew and a small quantity of alleged whiskey. The attention of the agents was called to this place after State Troopers and Sheriff Bailey of Greene county had visited the place on complaint of one of the customers who charged that he had lost a "roll" while there. Soltes was arrested by Sergeant C. L. Melroy, of the State Troopers, and Sheriff Bailey on a charge of violating the Sullivan law. One of the customers stated to the authorities that he had been drinking in the place and while there had considerable money stolen from his person. He swore out a complaint and the sheriff and Trooper went to the place where they found a gun in the possession of Soltes and while there they discovered the alleged intoxicants. The local agents were notified of the finding of the alleged liquor which they seized on their arrival and after making samples destroyed the remainder. Soltes was taken to the county jail at Catskill and held to await the action of the grand jury and a federal warrant was sworn out charging possession of the alleged intoxicants.

Y's Men's Club Invites Nyack

The Kingston Y's Men's Club at their regular meeting Tuesday evening at the Y extended an invitation to the Nyack Y's Men's Club to be their guests Tuesday evening, November 20. Every effort will be made to have a one hundred per cent attendance that evening. They have also challenged the Nyack men to a game of basketball and also bowling, as it is understood that they have some expert players.

George Flinnings was appointed chairman to arrange to enter a bowling team in the Uptown Mercantile League and from indications expects to walk off with the honors. George Hendrickson reported that he had a dandy basketball team lined up and under George's leadership many first-class games will be staged this winter.

All arrangements have been completed for their Halloween dance to be held at their Charles Ramsey lodge at Lake Glenorio this evening and a big attendance has been prepared for.

George Hutt was appointed chairman of the committee to work out plans for bridge parties this winter. George will have something of interest to report at the next meeting.

During the past few months the club has taken into its membership ten new members who were officially inducted into the club by Past President Dr. Julian J. Gifford, who explained very eloquently the principles of the club. Dr. Gifford especially stressed the living up to their motto: "To acknowledge the duty that accompanies every right" and pointed out very clearly how the club could make itself useful in the community. It was a very impressive address and was listened to with close attention. Each new member was presented with a bound copy of the constitution and by-laws. The new members are: John Romulus, Stanley Wynn, Harry Riemann, H. L. Winter, N. LeVan Haver, Earl McLane, Orson Beatty, Karl Messinger, George Hutt and Erwin Crow.

The entertainment committee for next week is Paul McDowell, Thomas Rowland and James Scott. A very exceptional entertainment is expected from this committee.

Two Important Intersectional Games Saturday

New York, Oct. 31 (AP).—The intersectional factor is much more marked in this Saturday's eastern college football schedule than it was a week ago but prospects are that Atlantic seaboard fans will be less interested in these games than in a series of outstanding duels between Lombards.

The Princeton-Ohio State battle at Columbus and Notre Dame's invasion of the East to tackle Penn State at Philadelphia, alone of the intersectional games, appear worthy to hold the same spotlight that will shine on such games at Georgetown-New York University; Dartmouth-Yale; Syracuse-Pittsburgh; Cornell-Columbia; Holy Cross-Brown, and Lafayette-Washington and Jefferson.

Army and Colgate will be "at home" to De Pauw and Wabash, intersectional foes, who on their records at least, appear to rank some notches below their prospective eastern rivals. Pennsylvania despite a 6-0 defeat by Navy, should carry too many guns into the West for Chicago, now in the midst of an extremely unsuccessful season.

But eastern eyes will watch with great interest the progress of Princeton's battle against Ohio State, one of the Big Ten's greatest teams. Notre Dame still holds the public eye despite defeats by Wisconsin and Georgia Tech. Rockne's team is constantly improving and the same holds true of Penn State which battled Syracuse to a tie last week.

New York offers the only struggle of the week between undefeated and untied teams—Georgetown and N. Y. U. at the Yankee Stadium. Georgetown has scored 210 points against St. Mary's, Susquehanna, West Virginia Wesleyan and Duke.

N. Y. U. has scored approximately 70 fewer points against stronger opposition that included Niagara, West Virginia Wesleyan, Fordham, Rutgers and Colgate. Comparative scores, based on the West Virginia Wesleyan games, reveal how evenly matched the teams really are. N. Y. U. defeated the West Virginians, 26-7, and two weeks later Georgetown turned the trick, 34-7.

Yale, in advance calculations, figures to win against a Dartmouth team crippled by injuries to Marsters, Breitbut and Wolff, backs, and Booma and Swarthout, ends.

The contest between Cornell and Columbia has the experts perplexed trying to pick a winner. Cornell put up a gallant fight against Princeton but lost by a field goal. Columbia was beaten by Dartmouth but has shown strength against other opponents.

Syracuse undoubtedly will be a slight favorite over Pitt at Pittsburgh but the Panthers have a formidable team that West Virginia could beat by no more than three points and Carnegie Tech by six. Syracuse's lone defeat was a one-point heart-breaker by the powerful Nebraska squad. Lafayette is due to whip a green and encephalitis Washington and Jefferson team, but this particular rivalry has always been marked by close, hard-fought battles and the 1928 combat may be no exception. There's another evenly matched struggle in prospect at Providence when Brown meets Holy Cross.

Navy, Harvard and Boston College, among the leading teams, have scheduled opponents of lower rank in West Virginia, Lehigh and Manhattan.

K. H. S. Prepares For Port Jervis

Coach Kias is putting his high school gridder through stiff workouts in preparation for the game Saturday afternoon at the Kingston Fair Grounds with the Port Jervis High School eleven. The Port Jervis aggregation has one of the best teams the school has turned out in years and are undefeated and untied this season. Kingston must win this game in order to remain contenders for the DUSO League crown. Although Poughkeepsie beat Kingston and Port Jervis beat Poughkeepsie, the local team has an even chance of winning. Kingston has a good lineup and are due to show better results on the offensive as the season progresses.

JOIE RAY ADDS ANOTHER RECORD TO HIS LIST

Philadelphia, Oct. 31 (AP).—Joie Ray, veteran American runner, was back at the head of the class today and with another record tucked away among his souvenirs.

El Ouali, the slender French-Algerian marathon winner at Amsterdam, fell victim to Ray's flying feet in a 16-mile indoor race last night which the American clocked off in one hour, 27 minutes and 18.15 seconds. Ray's time for 15 miles was one hour, 22 minutes and five seconds, which was announced as a new indoor record. El Ouali was four and one-half laps behind Ray at the finish, approximately one-third of a mile.

"Chesley" Joie, defeated at Amsterdam and also in New York two weeks ago on an indoor track, was out to run his two-time conqueror El Ouali into the ground.

Brief Advises Players to Get an Education

Bunny Brief, Milwaukee sandlotter completing his nineteenth year of professional baseball, advises the young player to go to college.

"He will get the best out of the game by doing so," says Brief, famous home-run hitter of the Milwaukee American association club.

"He has an opportunity to develop his game as he gets an education—gets expert coaching. If he amounts to anything at all, he has the opportunity of starting his career with a bang by getting a bonus. In the old days there was nothing like that."

Beacon Eleven To Play Yellow Jackets Sunday

Manager George Brooks, who thoroughly investigated the record of Beacon's representative football team, announced today that the eleven would be the opponents of the Yellow Jackets at the Kingston Fair Grounds Sunday afternoon.

Brooks and his associate manager, Ray Craft of the Yellow Jackets, who had the word pulled over their eyes by the mentor of the Cobleskill Stars, the team that was beaten 50-0 by the local eleven last Sunday in a very poor exhibition of the gridiron sport, care little for statements of rival managers concerning their gridder. They set out to make a thorough investigation of the Beacon team's record before they signed them for Sunday.

The Kingston men found that Beacon has not lost a game this year. Among those interviewed by Brooks and Craft were sports writers of Beacon papers who forecast a decisive win for their community's team over the Yellow Jackets. The benighted Peekskill Bearcats, 36-0, trampled Cold Spring 49-0, and decisively trimmed a New York city aggregation by the tally of 26-0.

According to the information furnished by men not directly connected with the Beacon team, the downriver eleven should prove excellent opposition for the Yellow Jackets. Their record against teams met in combat stands out and the fact that the Beacon players have a good coach, a former Georgetown scholastic gridder, points to a good game for next Sunday.

ROAMERS TO HOLD IMPORTANT MEETING

Thursday evening a meeting will be held at the home of Don Robins of the Roamer quintet, which made an enviable record on local and out of town courts last season. This will be an important meeting as plans for the coming season will be made.

The players who wore the Roamers uniform last year were "Stretch" Cahill, "Gog" Boyce, "Dub" Raichle, "Abc" Bittner, "Don" Robins, "Bob" Cullum. All these players, except Bob Cullum, will be available. H. Smith and J. Houghtaling will be added to strengthen the team.

Practice sessions will soon start under the new coach, Jack Robins, to get the men in shape for the hard games booked with strong prep and high school teams.

It is requested that all members of the team be present at 7:30 in order to get the business session over as soon as possible.

Will Defend Coach Kalloch

Superintendent Moon of Poughkeepsie Declares He Has Unimpaired Confidence in Coach—Will Await Action by DUSO League.

According to latest reports Poughkeepsie school officials have done but little investigating in the matter concerning the fracas alleged to have been started Saturday by Poughkeepsie High School students against Port Jervis High School football players and a number of fans, who accompanied the eleven to the Bridge City to witness the game won by the Port eleven, 13-0.

It is likely that much delving into the matter concerning the battle will take place in the future. Port Jervis citizens have become interested in the scholastic matter, it is intimated, and the unsportsmanlike conduct attributed to Poughkeepsie players and their coach, will be carefully looked into.

Coach Kalloch of the Poughkeepsie team, according to Port Jervis residents, caused some of the disturbance. The Poughkeepsie mentor, however, has denied this and claims to have complimented Coach Chase of Port Jervis on the success of his team. It was rumored that Port Jervis supporters would ask for the suspension of Kalloch as a coach in the DUSO League. The Kiwanis Club of Port Jervis is one of the bodies interested in the squabble and are seeking to take up matters with the Poughkeepsie fraternity for a proper settlement of the quarrel.

Superintendent of Poughkeepsie Schools Moon acknowledged he had done nothing about the incident except to inquire from Coach Kalloch as to what occurred. It was then he said he had the utmost confidence in the coach and sought to defend him.

Asked if he did not think some explanation, whether it might be in the form of an apology, should be made to the Kiwanis Club and others alleged treated unjustly here, Mr. Moon said he would await any such action until a meeting of the DUSO League if a meeting were called in the future.

Asked if he did not think action should be prompt in the matter inasmuch as the Port Jervis citizens were aroused, Mr. Moon indicated he would not take any action as superintendent until the matter was brought to the attention of the DUSO League or unless the board of education might be asked to consider the matter.

Principal Fox of Poughkeepsie High School admitted he had not had an opportunity to find out what the trouble was all about and was not certain whether the high school players were involved in the scene Saturday.

"It certainly is a thing to be deprecated if our boys are involved," Mr. Fox said intimating he thought justice should be shown in the matter if such were the case and if the Port Jervis players were insulted.

PENNSYLVANIA TO DRILL RESERVES

Lack of Substitutes Last Year Lost Three Games.

The crying need of armies, teams of all descriptions but more particularly at this time of the year, football, is adequate reserve material. At the University of Pennsylvania the need is urgent judging by the amount of time the coaches are spending drilling the substitutes.

Last year Pennsylvania suffered heavy losses through injury that robbed the team of its mainstays in the heat of the season. Paul Scull, John Shuber, Martin Brill, John Uitz, Mort Wilner, all regulars were rendered hors de combat during the Penn state contest.

With so many of the best players out of the lineup it is little wonder that the team suffered the slump that caused the loss of three games. When the regulars returned to their positions there was a decided change in the team as Columbia, Harvard and Cornell will testify.

This season the reserve material has come along better than last, the individuals giving every indication of rounding into such form as will relieve the coaches of some of their worry. However, constant drilling in fundamentals with scrimmages as the real test, will keep the substitutes busy from now on.

Lud Wray, the line coach, will have as understudies to the regular tackles, two players who saw action last season. Gene Kuen, who was understudy to John Smith and Bob Schneider, who also saw service in a number of games, should be better than they were last year. Each has had the necessary game experience to make them first rate substitutes.

Bill Williams, star of the freshman eleven's line last season, is making both Kuen and Schneider hustle for the honor of being the first tackle substitute. Others in the running include Barrett, who has been on the injured list for three weeks, Farley and Beaumont.

The guard reserves present a problem. Of the four men only one, Warren, a scrub last season, seems to have the necessary qualifications for big game service. The others are learning fast but still need plenty of work. Charles Urban, the minister, Thwaites and Smalley are waging a keen duel for the honor of being the first substitute after Warren.

Ed Jordan holds the honor of being understudy to Westgate, the regular center. His experience as a freshman last season makes him highly valuable. He has Looby and Lockhart, the former a scrub last year and the latter a freshman guard, to battle for the post.

The end problem continues to be acute. Although Luch and Olexy started in the opening game, neither is certain of keeping their positions. Bill Sullivan and Mory Schainman, both substitutes last season, may yet win regular posts. Both are hard fighting, tearing in ends who can snare passes with the best and either or both may oust those now holding the fort. John Ball, first-string substitute last season, is still in the running. Fred Welham, a newcomer, who reported three weeks late, has displayed considerable promise.

In the backfield, Coach Bert Bell has Wilner, an experienced quarterback, and Ratowsky, a halfback last season who is also calling numbers. Carroll Rosenbloom, a slight edge on the other candidates for the first call if anything should happen to the regular backs. Frank Mulligan and Walter Opekun are other excellent prospects. Granville Carrel, substitute last season, and Walter Masters, former freshman star, have a fine chance to oust several of those already named.

William V. Dwyer is again president of the New York American Hockey club. He purchased control and announced many changes.

The one-armed golf champion of Ohio is Baldy Webster, caddy master at the Ridgewood Country club. He won a Dayton tournament.

Andy Conkley, Columbia baseball coach and himself an old player, says Joe Dugan, of the Yankees is the best third baseman he has ever seen.

Giants Start Trading Season

Lefty O'Doul Goes To Phillies For Fred Leach—Brennan Will Prove Very Much Before Training Starts.

New York, Oct. 31 (AP).—In trading Lefty O'Doul to the Phillies for Fred Leach, the Giants started a trading season that probably will prove very brisk before the major league clubs assemble five months hence in the south and west for training.

The real trading comes by custom when snow has covered the diamonds and outfielders in the big time stadium. But the Giants and the Phillies started the ball rolling with a deal when the frost is just on the pumpkin.

That many other deals will follow seems a safe guess. Several teams are known to be dissatisfied with past performances of some of their highest-priced players and the managers are prescribing a change of scenery.

Although the New York Yankees have won two world series in eight games, Manager Miller Huggins is believed to be spending his time between golf shots at St. Petersburg, Fla., in looking over railway time tables with a view to buying tickets for some of his athletes to cities other than New York.

The Yankees have several players sitting on the bench most of the time who could take their places in the regular lineups of other clubs of the American League. An example is Big Ben Paschal, the well known garageman of Charlotte, N. C. Paschal can hit, run and throw, three essential assets for an outfielder, but he can not crowd out Babe Ruth, Earle Combs or Bob Meusel.

If the mite manager of the world champions can find some club needing an outfielder and blessed with a fair pitcher as excess baggage, a deal might be made. The Yankee infield may see some changes before another season starts. Joe Dugan's place at third base as a regular is not believed to be any too secure, although he can remain a Yankee subject to emergency call.

Only time will tell how good Tony Lazzeri's arm will be after a winter's rest and treatment. Dan Howley will trade if the wind is in the right direction but after his success in his last year's transactions his brother managers are apt to give him a berth.

Waite Johnson will have a chance to match wits with his new owner-master-mind for the benefit of Washington and Stanley Harris, who would like to do some juggling with the Tigers, over whom he has assumed command.

The trade winds are believed to be blowing over that part of St. Louis set aside for the Cardinals but President Sam Breadon must first who is to conduct the negotiations. Bill McKechnie has not been elected for another term. At the same time he has not been defeated for the nomination.

Every indication points to a second volume of baseball business before any more serious playing is done.

Red Shields at Highland Friday

Friday night the Red Shields will stack up against a fast aggregation of Highland. The game, which will be the second of the season for the locals, is to be played at Highland.

The Kingston quintet is counting on disposing of the Highlanders in the same fashion that they overcame the Palix Monday night in their first test of the season.

The Red Shields will meet strong opposition in the Highland team. Pete Bruck of this city is a member of the down-river club, and his ability on the court is well known. Other players on the quintet are Caudy, Hasbrouck, Lockhead, Countryman and Gooker, all noted as strong players. The Red Shields will win their regular lineup.

It is expected that the Salvo Army team will do some traveling this year as the five did when Captain Miller organized it several seasons ago. Manager Dan Joyce has a number of games booked for charges and Captain Miller, a staunch friend of the Kingston team, is looking for the locals in the vicinity of New York and Brooklyn.

Talk to Australia Over Radiophone

Schenectady, N. Y., Oct. 31 (AP).—A nation's first with the United States for the first time this morning through a short wave radiophone station of the General Electric Company.

Dr. H. H. Hays, official secretary of the Australian government in the United States, telegraphed greetings to Dr. M. M. Landon, the American ambassador in Sydney, and a score of newspapermen of the two countries and General Electric officials discussed the relations which are in progress in both lands, and the weather.

Transmission was spotty, but by repetitions it was possible to carry on sustained conversations.

Australia was especially anxious to know what the odds are on Hoover and sent back messages that Bruce's reelection is certain in the forthcoming federal election.

The conversations took place between 7 and 8 o'clock, which was between 10 and 11 p. m. in Sydney. Transmission from Schenectady was through experimental station W2XAF, using a wave length of 31.4 meters, and from Sydney over the 24.5 meter wave of station 2ME. The conversations were broadcast for a listening public by station WGY on its regular wave of 279.5 meters.

Harold Phelps Stokes of the New York Times, A. D. Rothman of the Australian Press, Charles Stevenson Smith of the Associated Press, T. W. Gerber of the United Press, Harry C. Shaw of the Sentinel, Keene, N. H., and Stuart Hawkins of the New York Herald-Tribune were the American newspapermen who talked. The Australian newspaper men who engaged in the conversation were W. G. Connolly of the Sydney Herald, W. J. Tonkin of the Sydney Telegraph, E. Knox of the Sydney News and Adam MacCay of the Sydney Sun.

Market for Fruits France Honors And Vegetables Poultney Bigelow

New York, Oct. 31 (AP).—State Department of Agriculture and Market News Service reported that the market for fruits and vegetables was well attended by an interested number of buyers. The market was full of "top" fruit from the South. In the absence of the regular president, Mrs. Sarah H. Hays, Mrs. Hays, the French government's representative, was present. The market was well attended by an interested number of buyers. The market was full of "top" fruit from the South. In the absence of the regular president, Mrs. Sarah H. In the absence of the regular president, Mrs. Sarah H. Hays, Mrs. Hays, the French government's representative, was present.

A survey of 24 cold storage warehouses in the western part of the state, one week ago, showed holdings totaled 249,500 crates, against 552,251 on the same date one year ago.

The undertone of the onion market was firm. Arrivals of domestic yellow onions from all parts of the country were relatively light. The top price obtained on hundred pound sacks from the middle-western states was $2.25. Imported yellow onions from Holland sold at $2.00, principally $2.65 per sack.

Concord grape values slumped further. Supplies were moderate but trading was light. Sales on western and central New York 12 quart baskets were consummated at 55c to 62½c. California juice grapes were lower also. Various varieties sold at 60c-$2.12½ per lug.

Prices on white potatoes remained unchanged in a steady market. Supplies were fairly liberal and buying moderate. Upstate New York round white potatoes in bulk peddled out at $1.90-$2 per 150 pounds, while Maine Green Mountains realized $2.10-$2.25, rarely higher.

The market on apples was without any noticeable change either in the demand or values. Receipts from all sections of the state were rather light.

The apple exports from this country and Canada for the week ended October 26 amounted to 2,578,003 boxes and 1,202,917 barrels.

Lettuce was in short supply from upstate. Offerings were generally unattractive in quality and sold at 65c-$1.25 per crate. Fancy stock was eagerly sought.

O. E. S. Card Party.

A card party will be held at the Masonic Club rooms, Broadway and Henry street, Thursday afternoon under the auspices of the committee in charge of the domestic booth of the fair. Prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be served. The public is invited.
